

About Our Founder

Richard (Dick) Parry, CPP, CISM

Dick is the President and CEO of Secure Solutions Consulting (SSC), LLC.

Dick is widely recognized as one of the nation's leading security executives. With more than 40 years of public- and private-sector experience, he has deep expertise in workplace violence prevention, crisis management, event security management, emergency planning, risk assessment and mitigation, operational security, and information security.

Over the course of his career, Dick has served as a senior-ranking officer with a metropolitan police department and as a senior corporate executive with Fortune 500 companies, managing all aspects of risk, security, and safety, including highly classified defense programs. In addition to his extensive domestic security work, he has developed in-depth security and safety protocols for business operations in Europe, South America, and the Middle East.

Dick is a highly sought-after speaker and writer. He has spoken at the Brady Center for Gun Violence, CSO Perspectives, ASIS International, and ISACA. His articles and papers on risk assessment and mitigation have appeared in publications including CSO Magazine, Security Management, and the ASIS International CSO Roundtable. Dick has also guest lectured at Northeastern University.

Dick is a Certified Protection Professional (CPP), a Certified Information Security Manager (CISM), and a graduate of Northeastern University. He is a member of ASIS International, where he previously served as Boston Chapter President; ISACA; and the Massachusetts Police Association. Dick is the past Chairman of the Board for the Boston Police Foundation and past Vice Chair of the Board of Trustees for The Sage School in Foxboro, Massachusetts.
